People blame their environment. There is only one person to blame - and only one - themselves.

- Robert Collier

Robert Collier (19 April 1885-1950) was an American author of self-help and New thought metaphysical books in the 20th century. He was involved in writing, editing, and research for most of his life. His book The Secret of the Ages (1926) sold over 300,000 copies during his life. Collier wrote about the practical psychology of abundance, desire, faith, visualization, confident action, and personal development. Robert Collier's books have been popular with self-help and New Thought groups.
