

ELECTRICAL GNOSYS

*Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering
Vimal Jyothi Engineering College, Chemperi*

FROM HOD DESK

At the outset let me congratulate the students and staff members of Electrical & Electronics Engineering department for conducting the tech fest and IEEE international Conference ICCPCCT 2018 in a well organized manner. we could arrange the above two programs very nicely in between the hardships of the academic workloads. As an HOD another proud accomplishment is that we have received the award from ANERT in connection with the renewable activities in our College. I hope that the momentum can be maintained in the coming semester also.
