When observing the success of women students in common activities and competitions conducted at VJEC, there has been a considerable increase of women activist a competitors. Also the success rate of women students has also increased. The presence of the newly formed Women's Cell of VJEC will encourage, motivate and appreciate the women students and staff for more involvement. This year, being the inaugural year, they were able to honour the student achievers only. From next year onwards, the Cell will identify women achievers in various categories of the working women at VJEC and honour them also.

After inauguration, it has become the responsibility of Women's Cell to take care of the welfare and health of the women students and staff of VJEC
