Graduation Day 2019

The Graduation Day ceremony at Vimal Jyothi Engineering College, Chemperi, Kannur, was a momentous occasion for the 2015-2019 pass-out students of the institution. The event took place on the 23rd of July 2019 and was organized by the college to honor the hard work and dedication of the graduating students.

The ceremony commenced with an Academic Procession at 10:15 am, with faculty members and dignitaries from the college and university participating. The traditional lamp was lit, signifying the auspicious beginning of the event, and an invocation set the tone for the day.

Dr. Benny Joseph, the Principal of Vimal Jyothi Engineering College, extended a warm and gracious welcome to all the attendees. His opening remarks emphasized the significance of the day and the accomplishments of the graduating students.

The Chief Guest for the occasion was Dr.Sivaji Chakravorti, the Director of NIT Calicut. He was welcomed to the stage with an honor, and the ceremony proceeded with the lighting of the lamp by Dr.Chakravorti, which symbolized the spread of knowledge and wisdom.

His Grace Mar Joseph Pamplany, the Chairman of Vimal Jyothi Institutions and Auxiliary Bishop of Thalassery Archdiocese, graced the occasion and delivered an inspiring address, motivating the graduates to embrace their future with enthusiasm and dedication.

Prof. Laly James, the HOD of EEE (Electrical and Electronics Engineering) and the Coordinator of the Graduation Ceremony, introduced the Chief Guest, highlighting his achievements and contributions to the field of technology.

Rev. Fr. James Chellamkottu, the Manager of Vimal Jyothi Institutions, felicitated the Chief Guest as a gesture of appreciation for his presence and support.

Dr.Sivaji Chakravorti, the honored Chief Guest, delivered the Graduation Day Address. His speech was filled with valuable insights and advice for the graduating students, urging them to be agents of change in the world and use their knowledge to make a positive impact on society.
